Wellehan Library - Learning Commons
Computer Use Policy

While the computers are intended primarily for the use of Saint Joseph's College faculty, staff, and students, use will be granted to visitors who acknowledge and abide by the following guidelines.

- Children aged 12-17 may use computers only while under the direct supervision of a parent/adult guardian. The computers are not equipped with Internet filtering software. Parents/adult guardians are solely responsible for monitoring the use of the Internet by children under their supervision.

- If a Saint Joseph's College faculty, staff, or student needs a computer, a visitor will be asked to log off.

- The computers are not to be modified in any way. Any abuse of or tampering with the hardware, software or network is prohibited.

- Computers are not to be used for anything that violates local, state, federal, or international laws. It is the responsibility of the computer user to know, understand, and abide by the law.

- Computers may not be used for commercial purposes or profit-making.

- Visitors must pay 10¢ per page for printouts.

Violating this policy will result in termination of computer use privileges.

October 2016